

WATTERSON'S OPINION.

Predicts Goebel's Election by a Big Majority.

Editor Henry Watterson, of the Louisville Courier-Journal, has given to the New York Times his views on the political situation in Kentucky:

"The election of Mr. Goebel as Governor of Kentucky is as certain as anything on this side of the unknown." That was the declaration of Mr. Watterson at the Waldorf-Astoria.

"What will the anti Goebel movement amount to?" the reporter asked.

"The anti-Goebel movement," replied Mr. Watterson, "is the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company. Outside of that there is nothing to it whatever. As a matter of fact, there is no diversion in Kentucky whatever of the regular Democratic vote, and it will be rather increased by the John Y. Brown movement. I repeat that the Goebel ticket is as sure of its election as anything in nature."

"And what is your position, Colonel?" the reporter inquired. "I am," he answered, "supporting the regular ticket simply as a fact. It is one machine against another machine. I simply support the Democratic machine. I have no stock either in the Louisville & Nashville Railroad or in the Democratic organization in Kentucky. I have heard of the proposed consolidation of the Louisville & Nashville and Southern railroad, but that has nothing to do with the political fight on hand."

"Is there any anti-Bryan movement in Kentucky?" Mr. Watterson was asked.

"There is not," he rejoined, "the least anti-Bryan movement in the State of Kentucky. I am seriously thinking of discounting Mr. Bryan's peculiar views with respect to silver and going in with Croker in proclaiming him the greatest of living Americans."

Your Weight.

How much would your weight amount to in Silver Dollars at 16 to the pound? Would you like to have this much? Well, then see our announcement of "The Big Contest."

Goebel on Brown.

[Louisville Courier-Journal.] At Harrodsburg yesterday (Saturday) before an audience of about 2,000 people Senator Goebel had some interesting things to say on the subject of the recent Lexington convention. Mr. Goebel charged that John Young Brown, the nominee of the Lexington convention for Governor, on the day that the Louisville convention nominated a candidate for Governor, and only a few hours before that nomination was made, procured the publication in the Louisville Times of an article designed to stampede the convention to Brown by suggesting him as the best solution of the situation then existing within the convention at Music Hall. This publication, he charged, was made at the special request of Mr. Brown, conveyed through the Hon. C. C. McClure, the Democratic nominee for Railroad Commissioner in this district. He also accused the ex-Governor of insincerity in his present denunciation of the election law, pointing out the fact that Mr. Brown made speeches in behalf of Judge Hobson, who ran for Judge of the Court of Appeals as an avowed upholder of the election law, his election to the Appellate bench fixing the law firmly in the statutes by giving a majority on the bench in its favor.

A Text for Kentucky Democrats.

[Savannah News.]

Those Kentucky Democrats ought to reflect upon the motto of their State. It precisely fits the situation.

$50,000 Deal.

It is rumored that the Arcadia Hotel, at Dawson Springs, and all grounds belonging thereto, have been sold to the Illinois Central for a consideration of about $50,000. This is one of the most famous Springs in this part of the country and the most popular in Kentucky.

Prevented a Tragedy.

Timely information given Mrs. Geo. Long, of New Straitsville, Ohio, saved two lives. A frightful cough had long kept her awake every night. Such cures are positive proof of its power to cure all throat, chest and lung troubles. Only 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed. Trial bottles free at all drug stores.

LOCAL NEWS.

—It is said that no special effort will be made to recruit for the ten new volunteer regiments in the Southern States. It was in Georgia, the Carolinas, the Gulf States, and the two Northwestern Pacific Coast States, that difficulty was experienced in recruiting for the ten regiments just completed.

—The increase in postoffice receipts will this year be sensationally large, according to the present estimates of the Department at Washington. In some branches receipts are 25 per cent. greater than a year ago. In the last fifteen years the postoffice business of the country has doubled in volume. This indicates not only our direct growth in population, but the increase in the number and size of our newspaper and other publications, as well as a great growth in the habit of letter-writing.

—Kentucky club women have undertaken a crusade against the use of slang. The federation of this State has prepared a petition that is to be sent to school principals and teachers, asking their co-operation with the council of club presidents to secure a more careful use of English. The petition further declares that the great amount of ungrammatical and poor English and slang so constantly heard in the home, the schoolroom, and on the street is an offense to the ear that should not exist.

—A crank came running into the office of a Montana paper and said that a man had just swallowed a two-foot rule and died by inches. The editor started out at once to learn further particulars of the death, and, meeting a doctor, told him about the case. The doctor said: "Pshaw! that's nothing; I once had a patient who swallowed a thermometer and died by degrees." A couple of bystanders then chimed in. One of them said it reminded him of a fellow down in Kansas who swallowed a pistol and went off easy. The other one said he had a friend who took a quart of apple-jack and died in good spirits.

ENTHUSIASTIC FOR TAYLOR.

1—Calls Long down for neglecting his official duties to run Taylor's campaign.

2—Calls Al. Berry down for claiming that Bryan would be unsafe in Kentucky.

3—Refuses to restore suffrage to Republican ex-convicts to help swell Taylor's vote.

4—Kicks out of office a Taylor Superintendent of the Feeble-Minded Institute and puts a Democrat in his place.

5—Sends his throat to the doctor just as the speaking campaign opens.

Oh, yes! Bradley is enthusiastic for Taylor.—Kentuckian.

BROWN'S PROPHECY.

Extract From His Valedictory Four Years Ago.

Four years ago in this city, says the Frankfort Argus, at the conclusion of Governor Brown's valedictory on retiring from the Executive chair, he spoke as follows:

"Never since I first voted have I ever faltered to the party call; and I want to say, although we are to-day participating in the inauguration of Republican supremacy—in the name of Democracy, in the name of that party I loved and cherished in youth and manhood—I tell you Democracy is not dead but sleeping. (Great applause.) Not dead but sleeping; and four years from now—take my word—we will rally, and we will come from the lanes and the valleys and the brush, and you will on this spot witness the inauguration of the supremacy of the party. (Great applause.) You will be called back here to witness the supremacy of the party in this glorious State. I bid you adieu."
